THE STORY OF ELIZA THE NARWHAL

NARWHAL

A Story for...

Eliza

Have a great day you little Narwhal!

Love from Mum and Dad

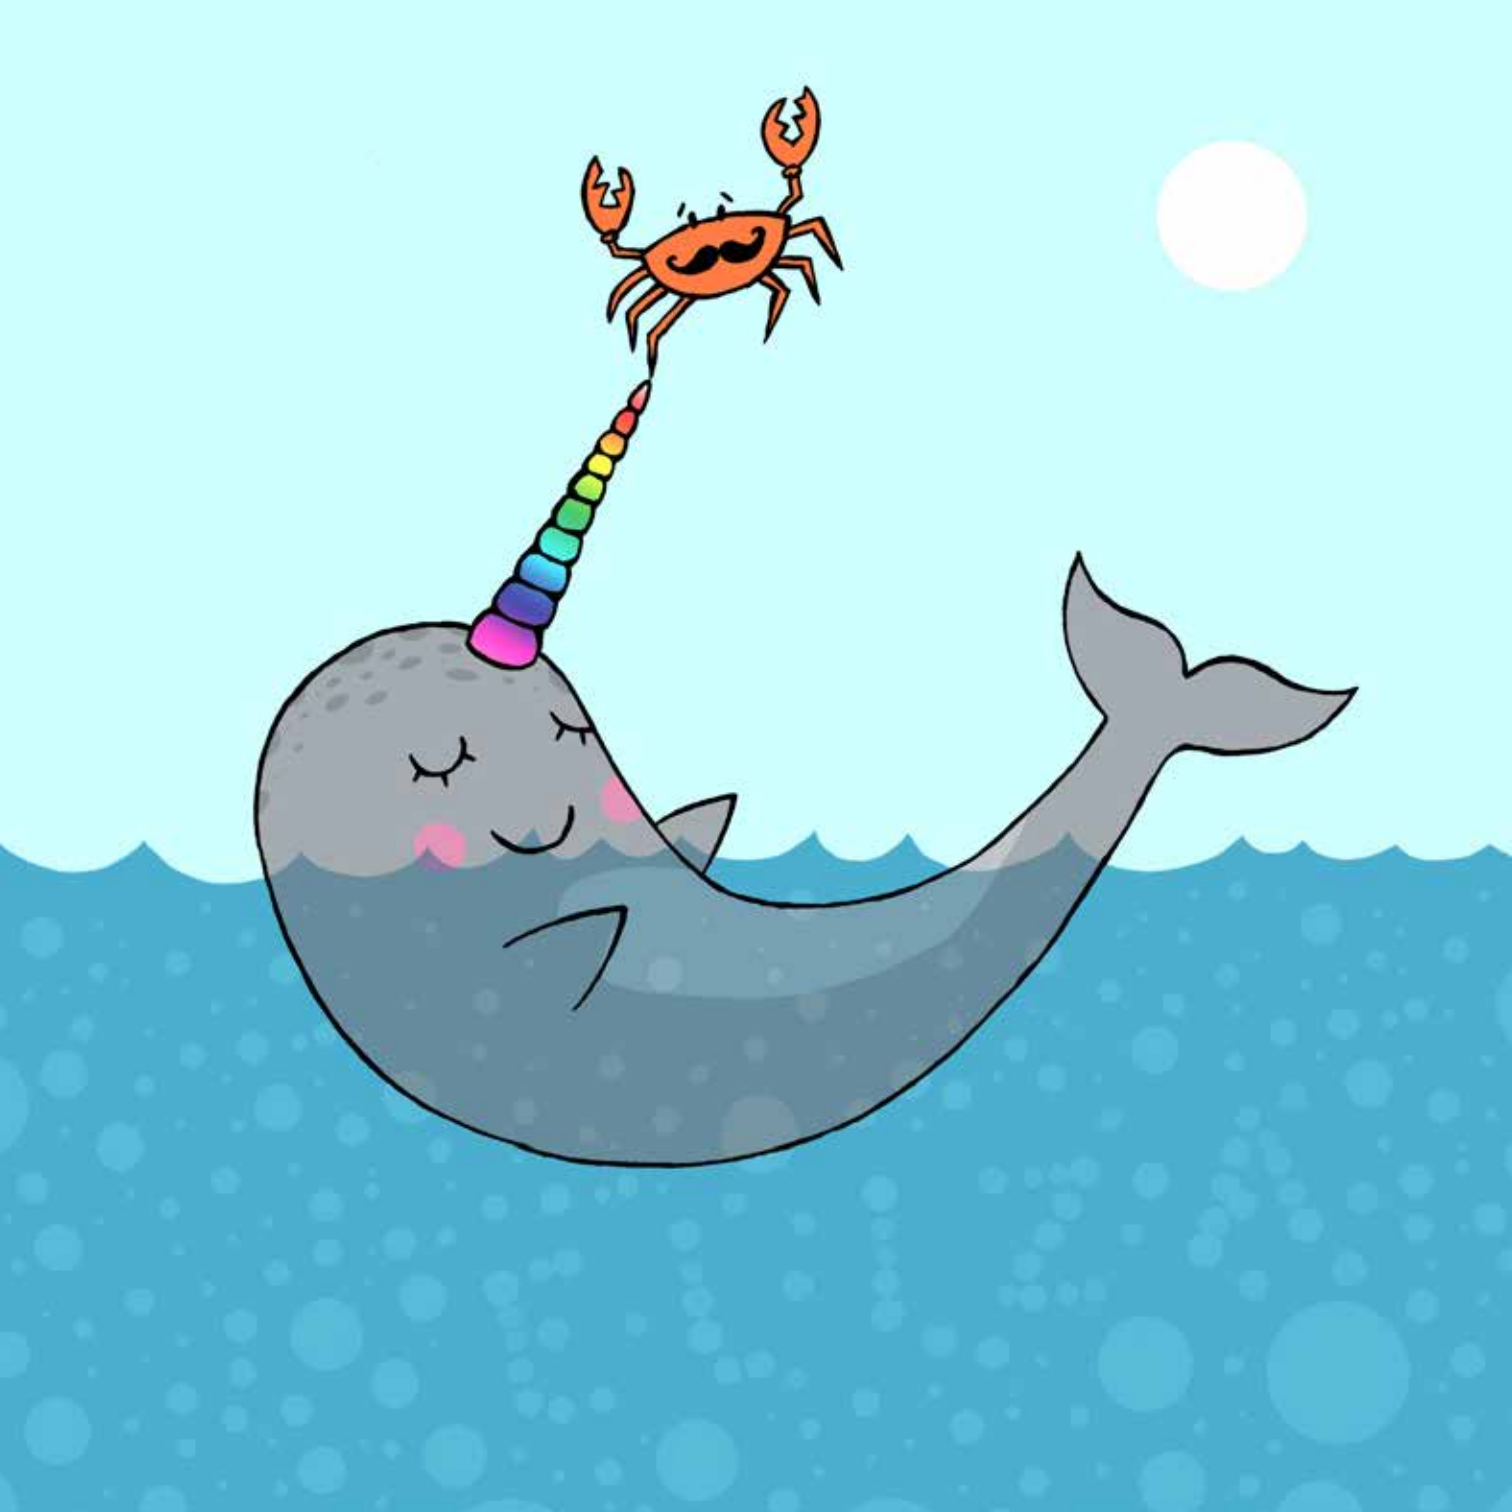

I'd rather be Eliza the Narwhal.

Wouldn't that be fab?

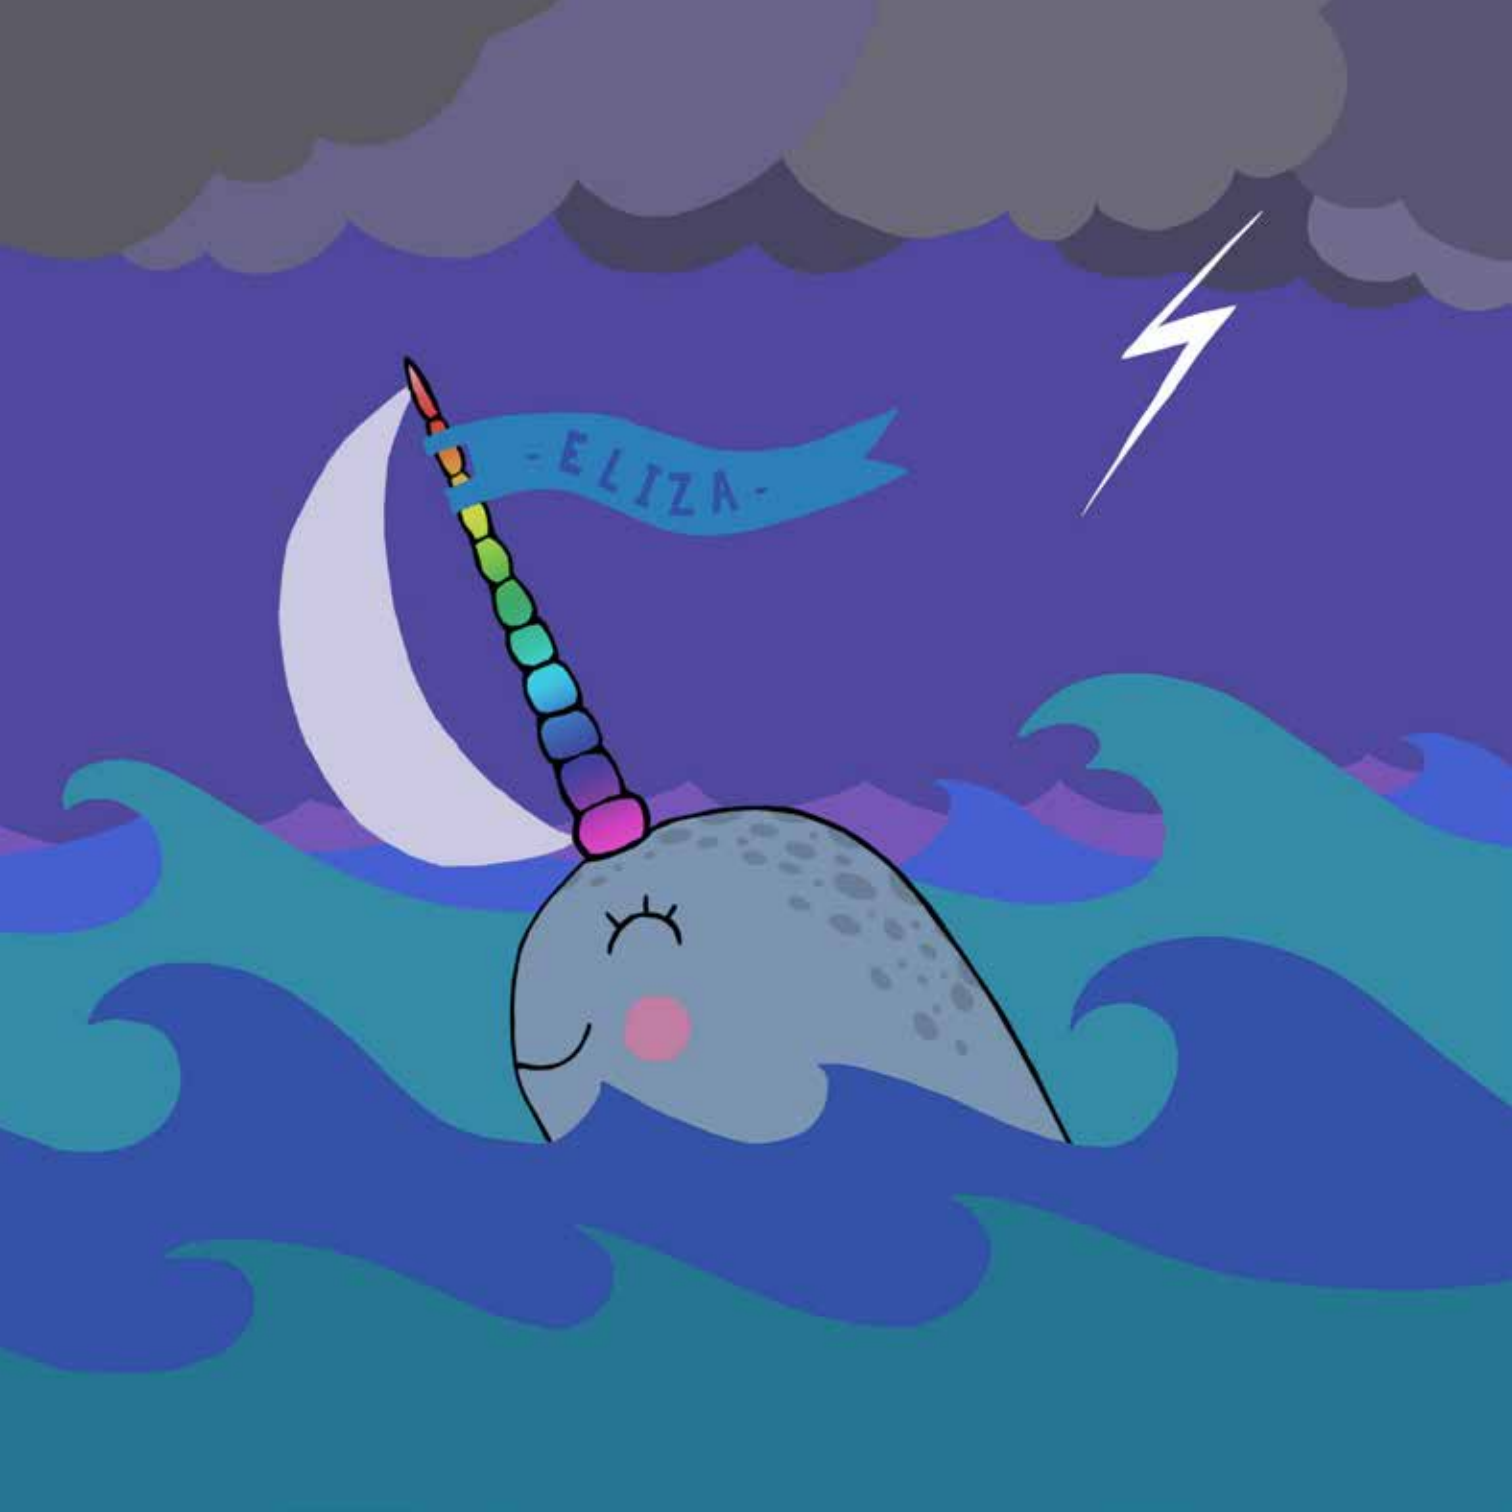

I'm Eliza the Narwhal!

I'd hang out with all my fishy friends, including Mr. Crab!

I'd do my best swimming where the sea is big and wavy

A task that would be difficult if you put me in some gravy!

As a narwhal, I'd always be in a good mood

I think I'd use my tusk,
to hold my favourite food!

Narwhals love the cold,
I bet they're always freezing!

I'd make sure I wrapped up warm to stop myself from sneezing!

A Narwhal is over a hundred times
bigger than a mouse

Elizra

I'd definitely need a bigger house!

Narwhals are great,
but is that who I should be?

ALWAYS BE YOURSELF,
UNLESS YOU CAN BE A NARWHAL.

THEN ALWAYS BE A NARWHAL!

Eliza

On second thoughts, I'd rather be me!

How much fun would it actually be to become a narwhal?

This entertaining story is written in rhyme and lets your child's imagination run wild as they think of all the fun they could have as the 'Unicorn of the Sea'.

The story is complemented with cute and colourful illustrations that feature the child's name throughout.
