Your Letter to Santa

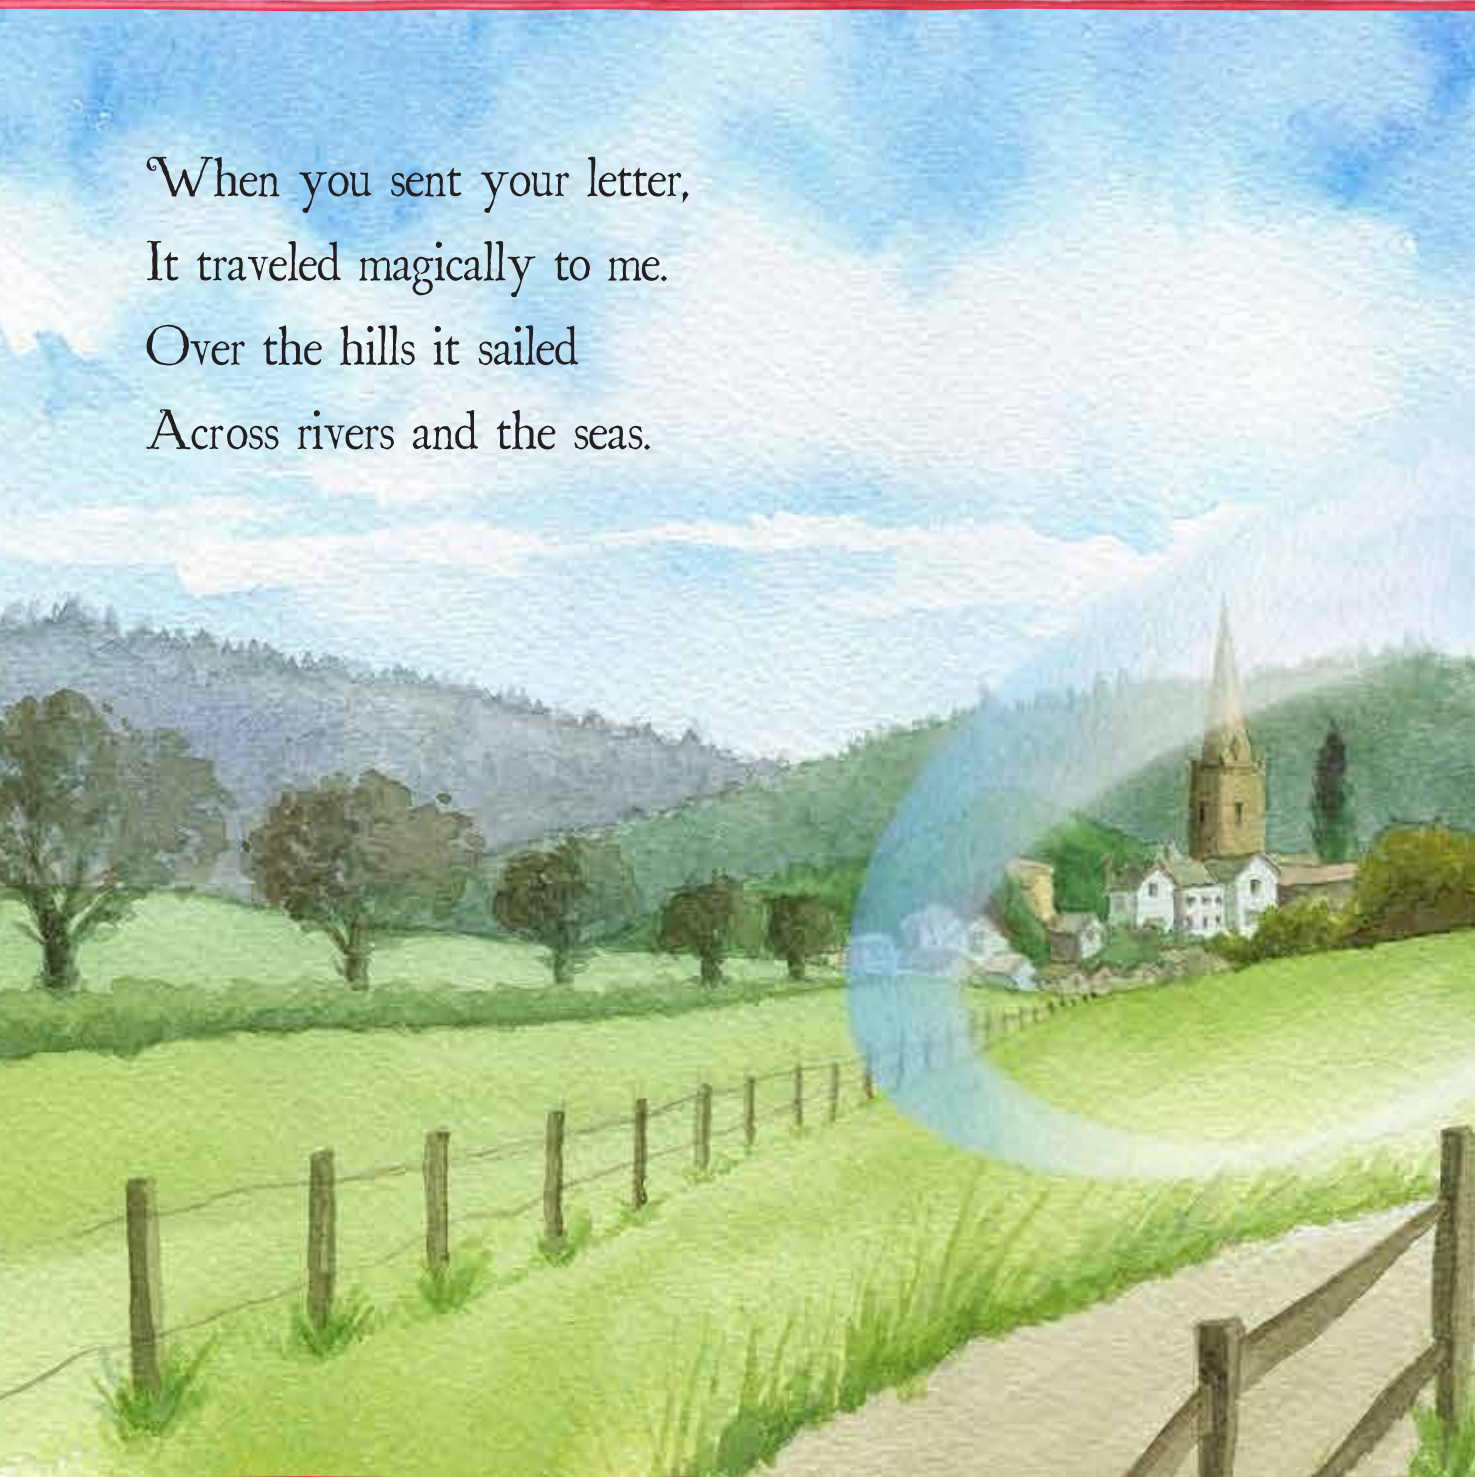

Alex, this is the story
Of how your letter got to me.
All the way to the North Pole,
That's where I live, you see.

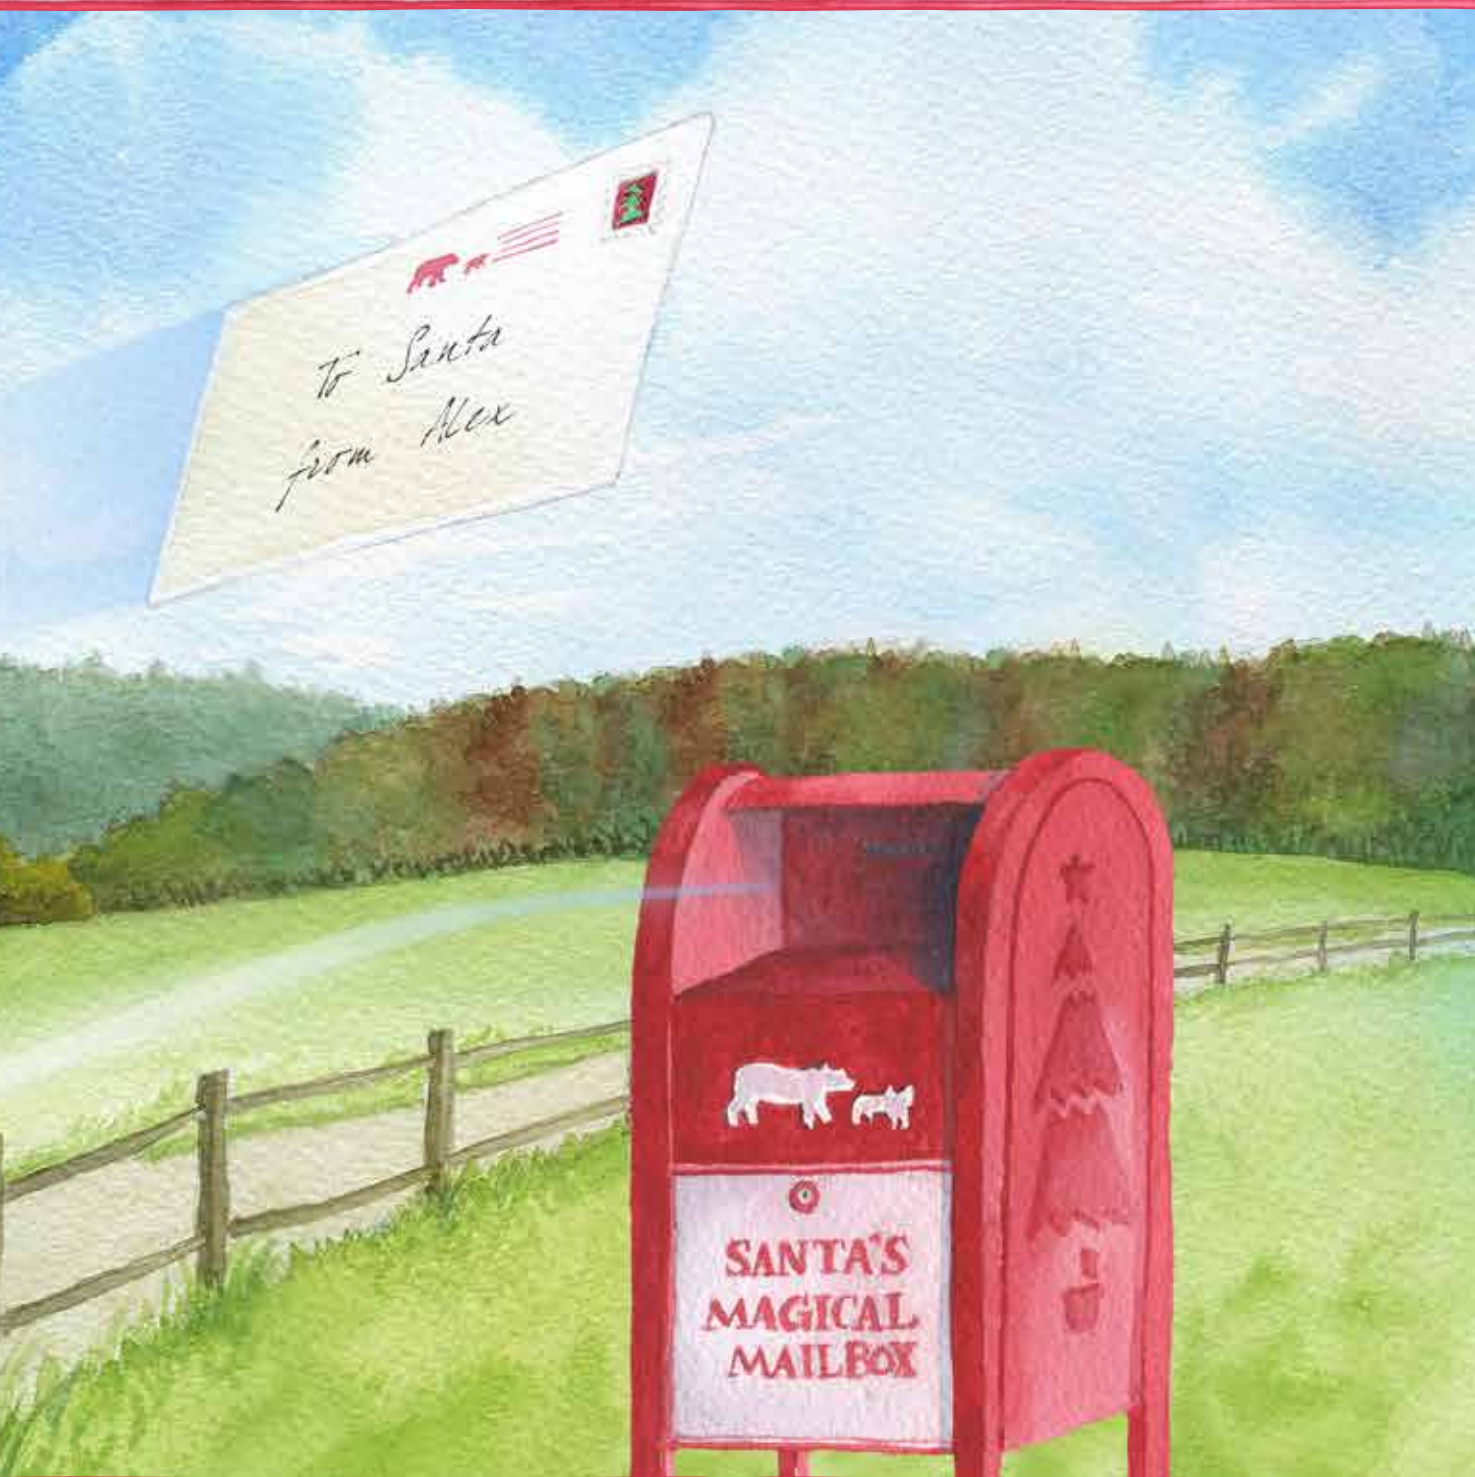

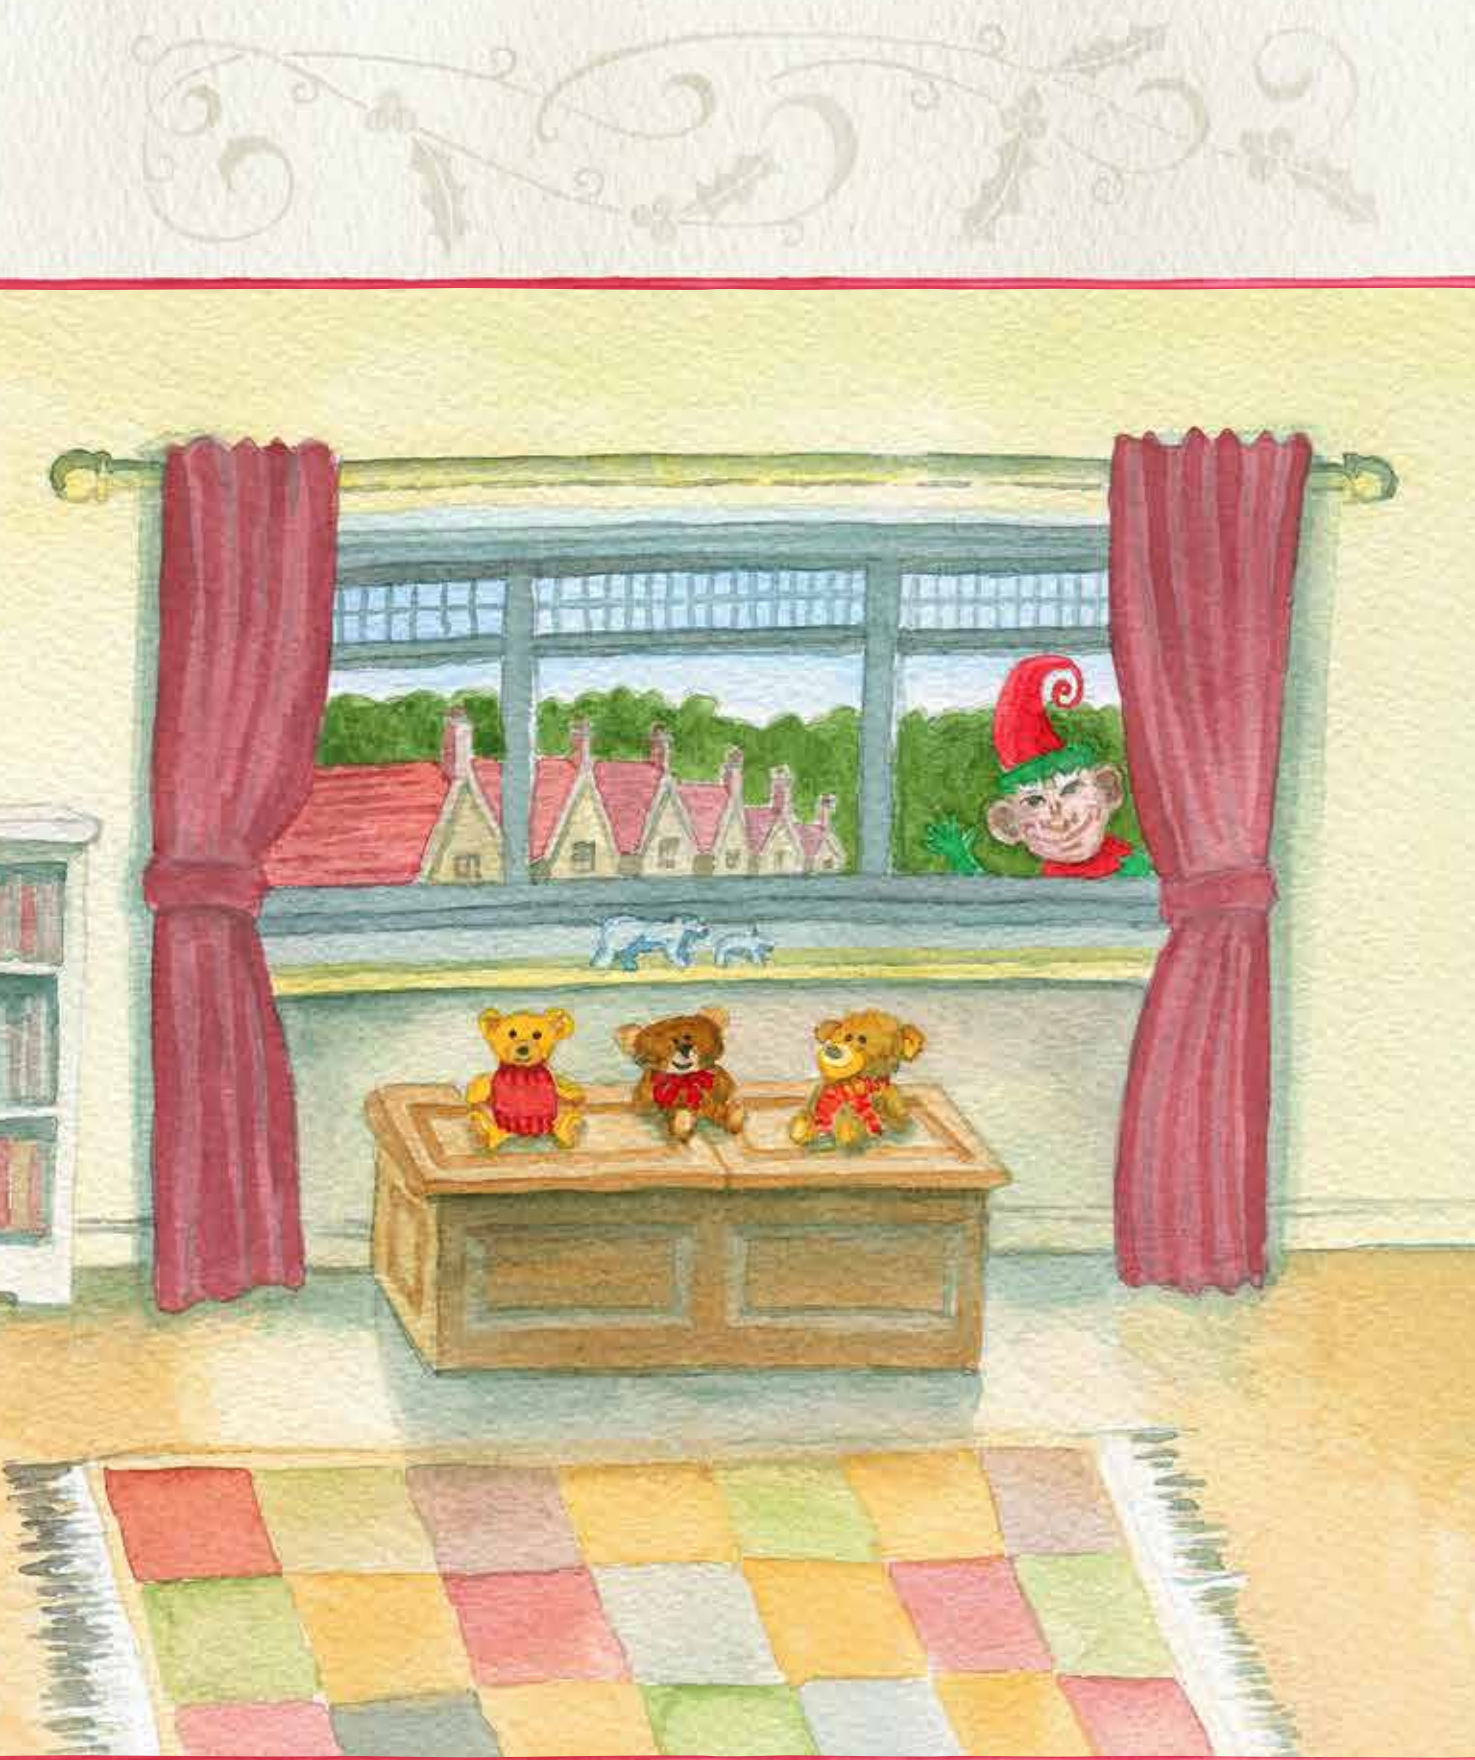

When you sent your letter,
It traveled magically to me.
Over the hills it sailed
Across rivers and the seas.

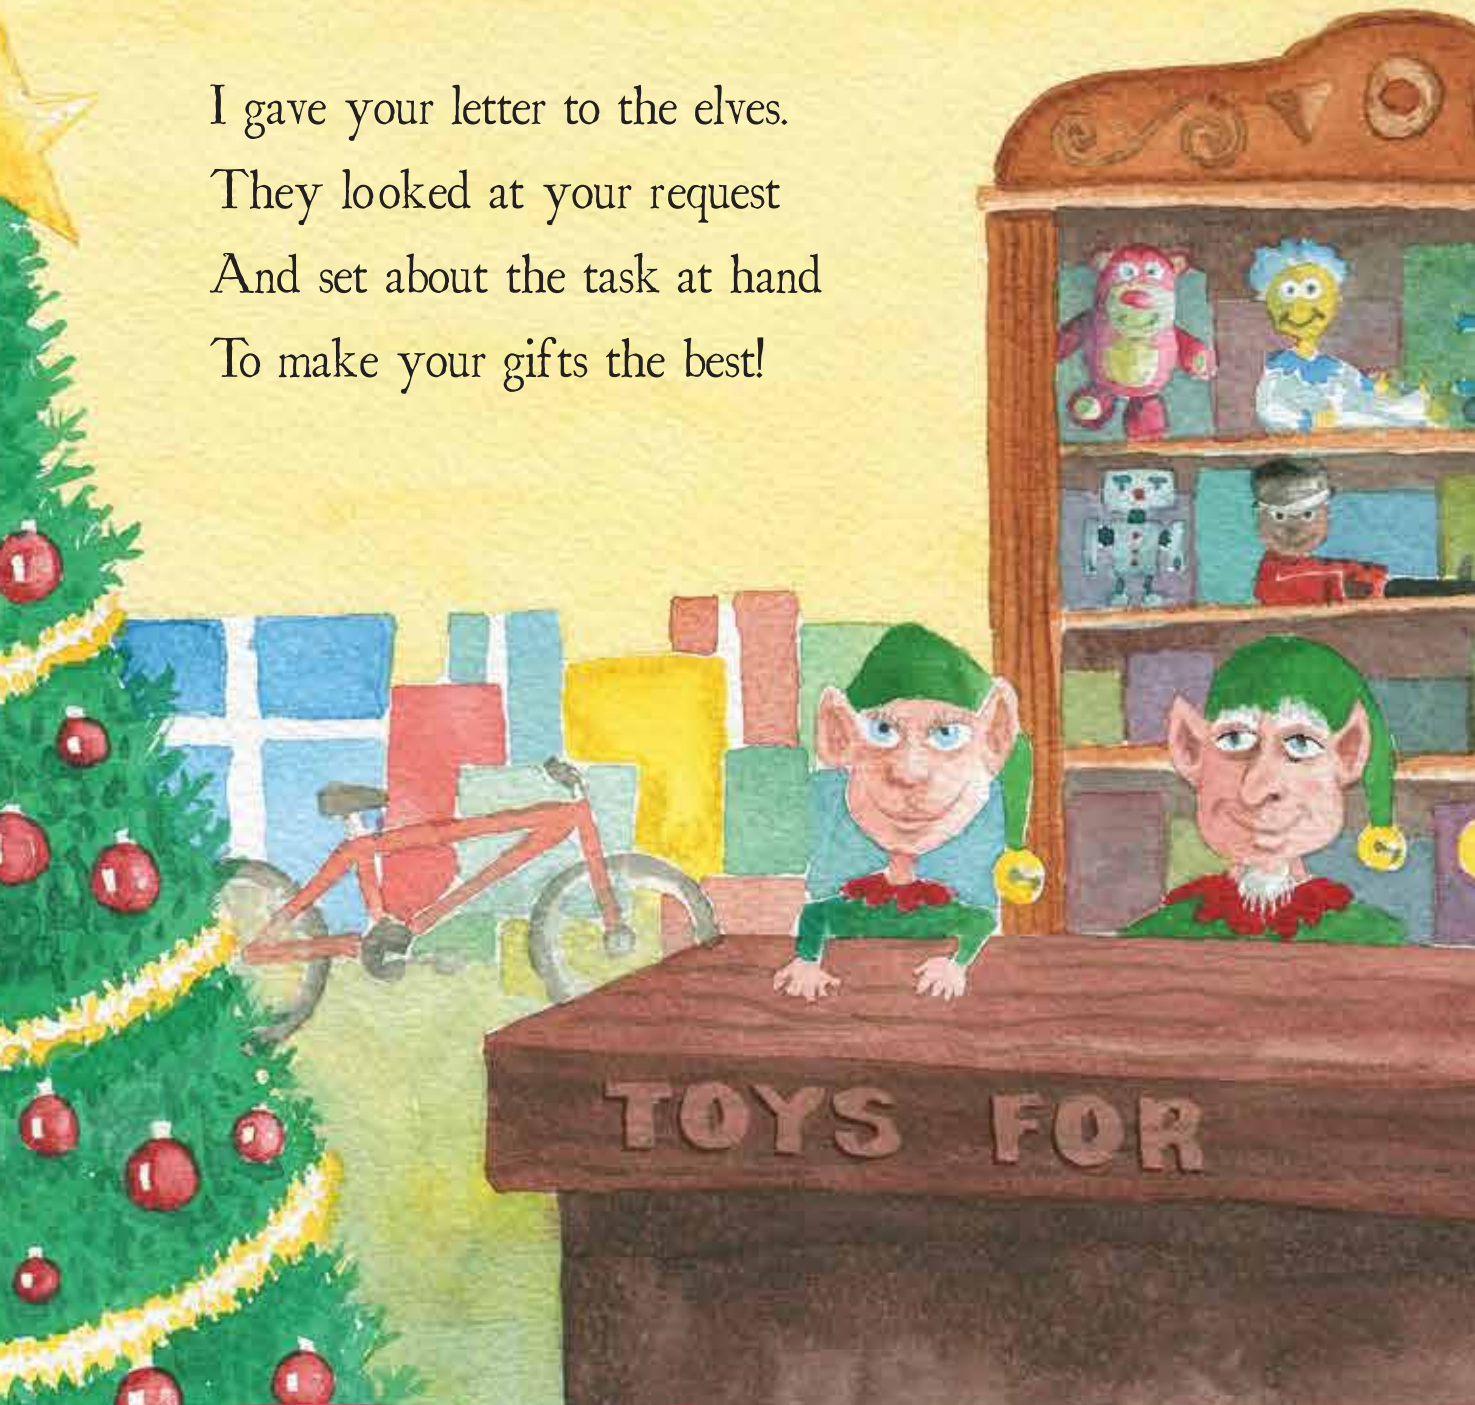

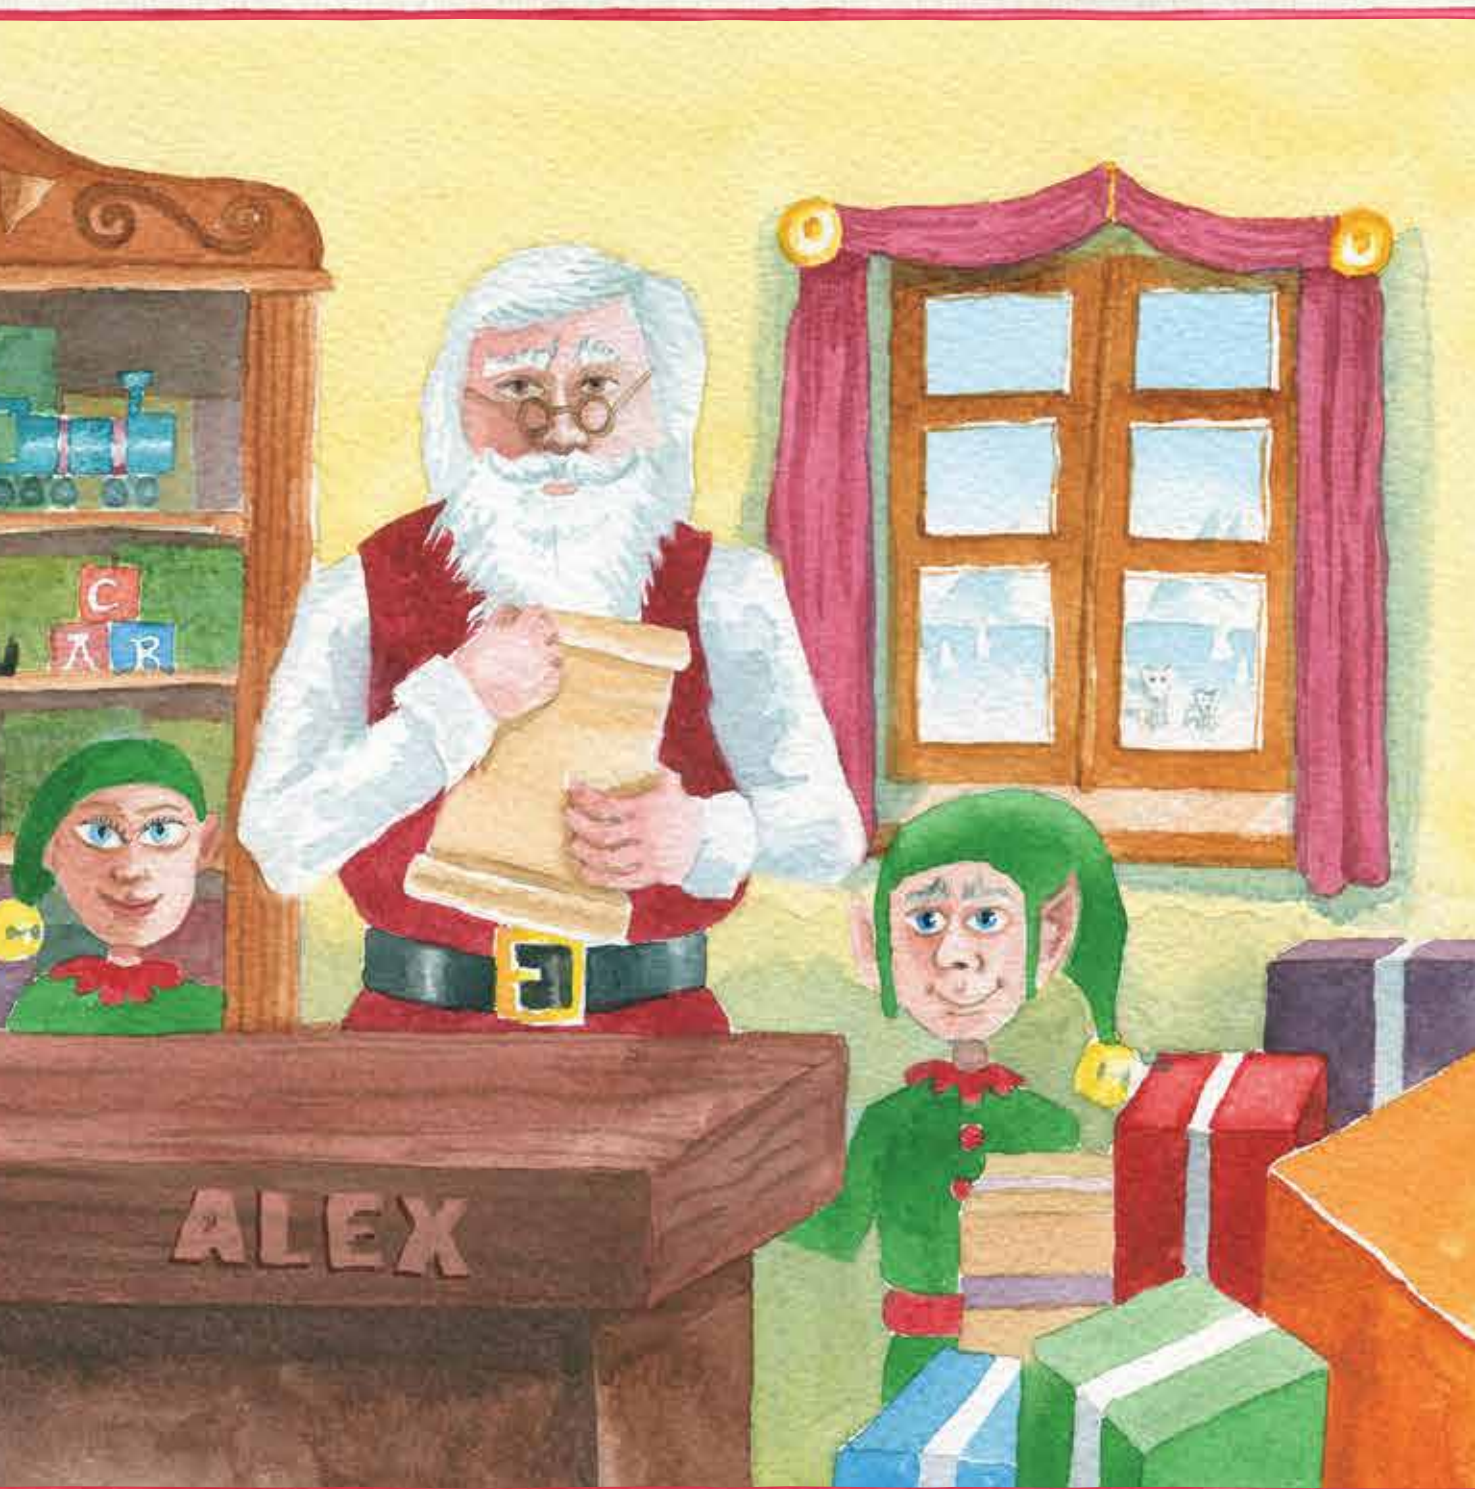

An elf had to check
If you'd been naughty or nice,
Whether you'd tidied your room
And brushed your teeth twice.

I gave your letter to the elves.
They looked at your request
And set about the task at hand
To make your gifts the best!

The elves gathered up your gifts,
Loaded them on the sleigh,
Rounded up the reindeer,
And off we flew - hooray!
